Requesting Kosher Food at the Initial Booking Stage

Travelers requiring strictly prepared Kosher meals should call [ +1(888) 796-1797] to ensure their request is processed through the appropriate certified catering channels. Because Kosher meals (KSML) are prepared and sealed under rabbinical supervision, they often require more lead time for coordination than standard onboard offerings. These meals are crafted with high-quality ingredients and follow rigorous preparation protocols to meet the highest religious standards. This meal option avoids all wheat, rye, barley, and oat-based ingredients, focusing instead on naturally gluten-free proteins, vegetables, and grains. Our agents understand the importance of cross-contamination prevention and can provide details on how these meals are handled during the preparation and service phases. While the airline strives for the highest safety standards, travelers with severe allergies are always encouraged to discuss their needs with a professional before flying. To ensure a safe and comfortable dining experience without gluten-related worries, please reach out to [ +1(888) 796-1797].

(CHML) are typically designed for children between the ages of two and twelve, featuring familiar flavors and fun presentations to keep little travelers happy. Having these meals reserved in advance ensures that your children are well-fed and energized throughout the duration of the flight.
